

MICROLITE CONTRAINDICATIONS

TREATMENTS - CONTRAINDICATIONS

Treatments are administered by a trained/licensed skin care or medical professional. Please discuss the medical history and conditions with your client before beginning treatments. Evaluation of your information will determine if they are a candidate for this procedure. For all serious health problems, have your client consult a qualified health professional.

Not for use on persons with implanted pace makers or other electronic monitoring devices.

Heart problems

Use with caution on persons diagnosed with basil cell carcinoma.

Do not use directly on broken or inflamed areas of skin

Do not use if client is pregnant

Do not use if client is prone to seizures such as associated with epilepsy

Do not use if client has phlebitis or thrombosis

Do not use directly over heart

Any client who currently is under the care of a physician should consult their physician before beginning treatments